Really enjoying this game! Very casual/relaxing, and has some nice puzzle-type features where you have to adjust your throwing strategy. This could have been boring like a dart-game, but this team really added some excellent functionality in terms of control.

Might possibly be my favorite VR experience so far, and I've had my Rift since 2016. The soundtrack is sparse and atmospheric. I thought I would only play through a couple levels to see if I liked it, but here I am 4 hours later and at the end of level 6.

Oddly satisfying hitting the targets once you get the hang of the controls/throwing. Highly recommended if you're looking for a cooldown after BSaber etc!. Clean graphics, simple game mechanics!. Massive thumbs up from me.

A hypnotic experience that makes me feel happy.
